FRIDAY, JULY 18.

Republican Ticket.

For Appellate Judge—Second District,
JUDGE R. L. DUFFY,
Of Morgantown.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge.
We are authorized to announce W. T. OWEN, of Daviess county, as a candidate for Circuit Judge in the Ninth Judicial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are indebted to Mr. Thomas P.
Archer for a season ticket for himself and wife for the Owensboro Chamber-laine meeting July 31 to August 11.

A negro burned at the stake at Clayton, Mississippi, and a crazy man hung by a mob at Owensboro, was the South's record for lawlessness yesterday.

The Kentucky editors regret that the pleasures of their visit to Owensboro next week must be marred by the unpleasant memory that that beautiful little city has given itself over so recently to the violence of a mob.

COUNTY CLERK, Josh Griffith, of Owensboro, candidate for State Treasurer, will entertain the Kentucky editors at his elegant home on Seventh street Wednesday evening.
Mr. Griffith will get a number of free "ads" of his candidacy and the quill-drivers will get numerous good things at his banquet, and who objects? Not the editors.

The taxpayer with an order on the county from a road and bridge commissioner, or other county claim amounting to $5.00 or more, must go to the County Treasurer to get his claim cashed. The taxpayer should not blame the Sheriff for failing to take his claim on account for taxes.
The Sheriff must be governed by the law. If the taxpayer has to discount his county claim to get the money with which to pay his taxes he must lay the blame at the door of a Democratic Fiscal Court which created the unnecessary and useless office of County Treasurer.

The coronation of King Edward VII, of England, originally scheduled for June 26, but because of the coronation of the king of the plains, will now be pulled off August 9. It is probably the fault of the mails that we have not received an invitation to attend the coronation, but, really we don't care, as we should not be able to accept the invitation.
We are not especially opposed to royalty in England, and we like King Ed personally, but we would not care to take such a long trip during the dog days.

We are friendly to the interest of the Home Telephone Co., and willing, at all times, to promote its interests, but we believe we have just cause for complaint against the company for not keeping a competent operator at its exchange here. The services of Miss Minnie McIntyre are, of course, always satisfactory, but the changes of night operators are more frequent than the changes of the moon. No criticism is intended toward the new operators, who cannot be faulted for not knowing, without experience, how to operate an exchange, but the patrons of the Company have a right to demand a competent service at the exchange.

A MOB took a man, whom many people believe to be insane, from the Owensboro jail at an early hour yesterday morning and hanged him to the frame work of the city scales. The Owensboro Messenger, a Democratic newspaper, published in that city, seems to have no opinions of mob violence which it cares to express. It devoted its editorial space yesterday to giving advice to bathers and other like weighty matters, but expresses no opinion on the appalling crime, which had disgraced its city the night before. The criminal element of Owensboro and vicinity will, of course, feel encouraged by this tacit approval of their outrageous conduct of the chief organ of the Daviess county Democracy.

The suit brought in the Circuit Court here Tuesday to enjoin the Democrats from holding their primary election on the 4th of November, a regular election day, has alarmed the Hartford Herald, which seems to think its party will not, now, be able to hold a primary election at all. It has not, perhaps, occurred to the Herald that there are 312 other days in the year in which they may hold their primary. What excuse can the Democratic party give for seeking to interfere with a regular election by a primary? Why hold it on this particular day? Does it not display anxiety for their very weak candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals? The Herald's silly twaddle about Bill Taylor and his militia, bears the "ear marks" of the writings of one Democratic candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney, but it will not terrorize the Republicans of this district from appealing to the courts for relief from an effort of the Democrats to outrage the rights of the voters on election day. We sicerely hope the Democrats will not object to submitting their case to the courts for which they profess so profound a reverence.

The hanging of Josh Anderson by a mob at Owensboro yesterday morning will be regretted by every good citizen of Kentucky and of the South.
There can be but little excuse for allowing a mob of forty men in a city the size of Owensboro to trample on the dignity and majesty of the law. Were not the city and county officials able to protect the prisoner from the violence of the mob, and the city of Owensboro and the State of Kentucky from the disgrace of its work? Can our courts no longer be trusted to punish the vicious and criminal, that the mob must vindicate the law by violating it? The good name of the city of Owensboro must suffer, unless the citizens of that city bring the members of the mob to account for their lawlessness.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERSHIP.
The Democratic party has not put forward any very capable National leader since the days of Mr. Tilden.
Why it has not done so, is not easily solvable. It would not be reasonable to assume that no one of the six million members of that party was capable of a wise, conservative and far-seeing National leadership. Granting the existence of such a character, within the party, we are forced to the conclusion that Democrats are incapable or unwilling to follow such leadership.

Why they persist in daring disastrous defeat by following such visionary leaders as Cleveland and Bryan, instead of entrusting their cause to the care of broader, wiser and more practical leaders like Hill and Gorman and Watterson, is indeed puzzling to the ordinary observer from the other side of the fence.
Perhaps the inability of the Democratic party to select capable leaders, is due to the various divisions within the party, with regard to National issues. In its efforts to bring its warring factions to the support of a common National ticket, the Democratic party may find it necessary to select candidates whose opinions upon public questions are not too strong nor too well known. After all, there may be more wisdom in that party's selection of incapable National leaders than is at first apparent.

S. S. State Convention.
The State Sunday School Convention meets at Hopkinsville, Ky., August 19-20-21. Each Sunday School of the State is entitled to one delegate for every 100 enrolled or fraction thereof, and the county to delegates at large.

The railroads will make one fare for the round trip.
All delegates will be entertained free. Let Ohio county show her interest by sending a large delegation.

Miss Williams, of Livermore, is the guest of Miss Minnie Maddox.

AT HARTFORD

A Suit is Filed Against the Democratic District Committee.

Republicans Seek to Prevent Primary Election in November.

Hartford, Ky., July 15.—Suit has just been filed here by Nicholas Barras and others asking an injunction against the Democratic district committee of the counties of Daviess, McLean, Ohio and Hancock, to prevent them from holding a primary election for the nomination of circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney.

(The article below was prepared from information received and was ready for the press when the preceding special was received from Hartford. Ed Inquirer.)

Republicans are unanimous and Democrats are dubious on the question of the legality of the holding of a primary election on the day of the regular election and at the regular voting place.

A test of the question is to be made at once on account of the calling of the judicial primary for the district composed of the counties of Daviess, McLean, Hancock and Ohio, to be held on the day of the November election. Suit will be filed in the Daviess circuit court for an injunction to prevent the holding of the primary on that day. The action will be brought by Col. C. M. Barnett, chairman of the Republican state central committee, and it will be pushed through all the courts.

The committee had a meeting in Louisville last week, and the question was brought up. There are some good lawyers on the committee and others were present or in easy access.
They all agreed that a primary on the general election day would be illegal, but they were not prepared to make a dogmatic statement on the subject. The matter was therefore referred to a special committee, to investigate. The committee has consulted some of the best legal talent in the state, and the conclusion is said to be unanimous that an injunction can be made good. The committee is now preparing its report which will contain an exhaustive review of the law and when it is finished another meeting will be held, at which there is no doubt that the suit will be ordered to be filed.

The Republican lawyers do not believe that the election will be legal, and many of the Democrats express doubt. Indeed, when the matter of fixing the date for the primary was being discussed in the district committee meeting, Mr. T. J. Smith, of Ohio county, a very careful man, and one who usually knows what he is doing before he does it, expressed a doubt of the legality of holding a primary on the regular election day and favored another date. He was met with the statement that other counties and districts had held primaries on election day and that the question was not raised. Mr. Smith submitted but he was not satisfied, and the filing of the suit will settle him still further.—Inquirer.

In Memory

Of Little Teddie Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson. Teddie was born February 3, 1901, died July 6, 1902. Little Teddie was sick only a short time, but suffered agonies untold, but bore his suffering patiently. All that kind hands could do was done for the little sufferer, but all in vain, he suffered on until the angel of death came and bore his spirit home. Oh, how often the father and mother will listen for the sound of those little footsteps, but they can hear them no more, they are forever silent, and those little blue eyes are forever closed; the little hand that was so often clasped in parting is cold in death. No one knew him but to love him, and many are the sad hearts to-day over the loss of one so dear.
Little Teddie is at rest. Father, mother, grandparents, uncles and aunts, think not of Little Teddie in the grave, but think of him in that beautiful home above. A FRIEND.

The Kid You Have Always Bought

Boy Weighed 355 Pounds.
Paducah, Ky., July 12.—Morace Lane, the largest boy of his age in Kentucky, if not in the United States,

He was fifteen years old, weighed 355 pounds and stood six feet high. No coffin could be found large enough, and a carpenter had to make one. He died of typhoid fever.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane of inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

FRED HALL
Attempts to Force His Wife to Confess Infidelity and Lands in Jail.

Mrs. Fred Hall, of Poplar Bluffs, Mo., arrived at Taylor Mines Thursday of last week to visit her mother.
Mrs. Mary Baker, Friday Mrs.
Hall's husband, Mr. Fred Hall, arrived at Taylor Mines and immediately upon his arrival, accused his wife of infidelity and undertook to force her, at the point of a pistol, to confess her guilt. Mrs. Hall refused, even under duress, to confess herself faithless to her husband, and had Mr.
Hall arrested. Deputy Sheriff, Flen Stevens brought Hall to Hartford and lodged him in jail Monday. Hall's case came on to be heard Thursday and the witnesses for the Community failing to appear, he was discharged.

We called on Hall at the jail and he told us the following story:
"Last week my wife decided to visit her mother at Taylor Mines, and the day after she left Poplar Bluffs parties told me stories of my wife's infidelity, which I was too angry to believe, and I left Poplar Bluffs the next day for Taylor Mines. When I arrived there I confronted my wife with these stories, the truth of which she denied and I drew the pistol on her to make her confess her faults.
Please say for me that I am now convinced that my suspicions of my wife were unfounded."

Mr. and Mrs. Hall will leave for their home at Poplar Bluffs to-day.

Tough in Trouble

Ben Newton had a man from Pinchecoe, tried to take a train Sunday on the Illinois Central railroad. He had been at the Catholic picnic at Whites-ville and had got a full tank of liquor on leaving the town. Just before he reached Deansfield he became wild and tried to take the train. Nobody can do that when Capt. Riley is aboard, and he soon had the wild man off and in the hands of the marshal at Deans-field. His case is set for trial to-morrow. Capt. Riley has laid off to testify and Judge Atchison will go out to assist in the prosecution. Newton's destination was Fordville, but he will not get there for several days.—

Poisoned With Milk.

Word comes from Fordville that the family of Henry Marlow, a promi-

We receive from week to week communications without the signature of the writer. We have called attention to this matter frequently, and must announce in positive terms that we shall under no circumstances hereafter publish a communication unsigned by the writer. We shall withhold the name of the writer when desired, but it must accompany the article. It will be a waste of time, stamps and stationery, to violate this rule.

R. R. Meeting.

Railroad talk has again been revived in Hartford and upon the arrival in Hartford Wednesday of Mr. Armitage, of Philadelphia, the talk began in earnest, and last night the citizens of Hartford met to discuss the matter from a business standpoint.

The matter was thoroughly discussed by our citizens, and all sides were heard in the matter. Hartford certainly needs a railroad and we are heartily in favor of the proposition to connect us with the outside world by railroad.

As our town is just now undergoing quite a business boom, we feel confident that our people will take hold of the matter and push it to a completion.

EVA BARLETT

Lodged in Jail Here Charged With the Terrible Crime of Infanticide.

Eva Bartlett was lodged in jail here Wednesday, for safekeeping, to answer an indictment in the Ohio Circuit Court, charging her with the crime of killing her own offspring, near here, sometime ago.

Mrs. Bartlett was formerly Miss Eva Long, and lived with her parents about two miles East of Hartford.

Sometime in March of the present year, a neighbor of the Longs was attempting to water his horse at the elder Long's well, and after letting down the well bucket discovered the dead body of a baby in the well.

The coroner was notified, who held an inquest over the dead body with the result that Eva Long was charged by the grand jury, at its next sitting, with the murder of the child.

Shortly afterward the Longs moved to Davison county, where Eva married a man named Bartlett, who was also, we're informed, a former citizen of this county.

A short time ago the Ohio county authorities forwarded the writ for the arrest of Mrs. Bartlett to the Sheriff of Davison county, who arrested her at her home, on the Hartford road, about two miles from Owensboro, Tuesday night, and brought her here Wednesday.

DESPERATE WORK

Of a Masked and Hooded Mob at Owensboro.

No Effort Made by City or County Officials to Save the Life of the Prisoner or Good Name of the City.

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning a masked and hooded mob of about forty men, took Josh Anderson from the Owensboro jail and hanged him to the frame work of the city scales.

One night last week, Anderson went to the home of his wife's father, where his wife was staying after deserting him a few days before, and calling her from her room, shot her three times, from the effects of which she died a few hours later. After shooting his wife, Anderson carried her to a bed and laid her down and asked her if he could do anything for her. She replied that she wanted to see her baby, who was sleeping up stairs.

Anderson rushed up stairs and brought the baby down and laid it on the bed beside its dying mother. Anderson then told his wife that he was going to kill himself, but went immediately to police headquarters, where he surrendered himself and was sent to jail.

He gave no excuse for the act, except that he loved the woman and that her people would not let her live with him.

The killing occurred Tuesday of last week, but, strange to say, the mob put off its work for ten days.

The Messenger says groups of men were seen about the neighborhood of the jail Wednesday night, darting frequently into the saloons, but no effort seems to have been made by the officials to protect the life of the prisoner or uphold the dignity of the law.

Messrs. Clarence Arndt and Albert Cox will open up a general store at Dundee in about two weeks. These men are hustling, energetic citizens and should be given a liberal patronage.

An Old Reckord.

The following is a copy of the first indictment ever drawn in the Ohio Circuit Court. It will be observed that the indictment charges the accused with an offense no longer punishable by indictment:

Commonwealth of Kentucky, Ohio Circuit and County Court, to-wit:

Circuit Court, April term eighteen hundred and twenty-three. The Jurors of the Grand Jury empaneled and sworn to inquire in and for the circuit and county aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, in the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth aforesaid, present that Barnet Austin late of said circuit county, at the circuit aforesaid on the 12 day of April eighteen hundred and twenty three was drunk by the excessive use of ardent spirits contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth aforesaid.

Information given by Richard Duke and John Stevens of the Grand Jury. D. L. MORRISON, Foreman.

Declined The Call.

Dr. R. H. Crossfield has written a letter to the Christian church at Louisville, Mich., from which he received a very flattering call to the pastorate, expressing his thanks, but respectfully declining. This is good news to Dr. Crossfield's many friends in this city and State. He is one of the leaders of the Christian church in the state, and his removal would be a serious loss to it.

The best liniment for strains and sprains is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Mr. F. H. Wells, at Deer Park Long Island, N.Y., says: "I always recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain and was pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected. For sale by all druggists."
